

Caleb and the Path of Most Resistance
Joshua 14: 6-15

9/1017

R Group Sermon Discussion Questions

What were your thoughts and reflections from Sunday's sermon?

What are difficult acts of obedience that you have had to face over the years?
How has it grown or stretched you?

What does it look like for someone in today's world to, "wholly follow the Lord" as it was said about Caleb?
Is this person a pastor or Bible scholar? Can they be a farmer?
A stay-at-home mom? An electrician? Retired?

Who is somebody in your life that makes you think of Caleb? Why?

What do you hope to be like when you're in your 80's? What do you need to do now to accomplish that?

How does the certainty of our inheritance in Christ allow us to face the difficulties of obedience?

Do you agree or disagree that in the long run, obedience is always the easiest choice?